Columbus Assessment Name: _____

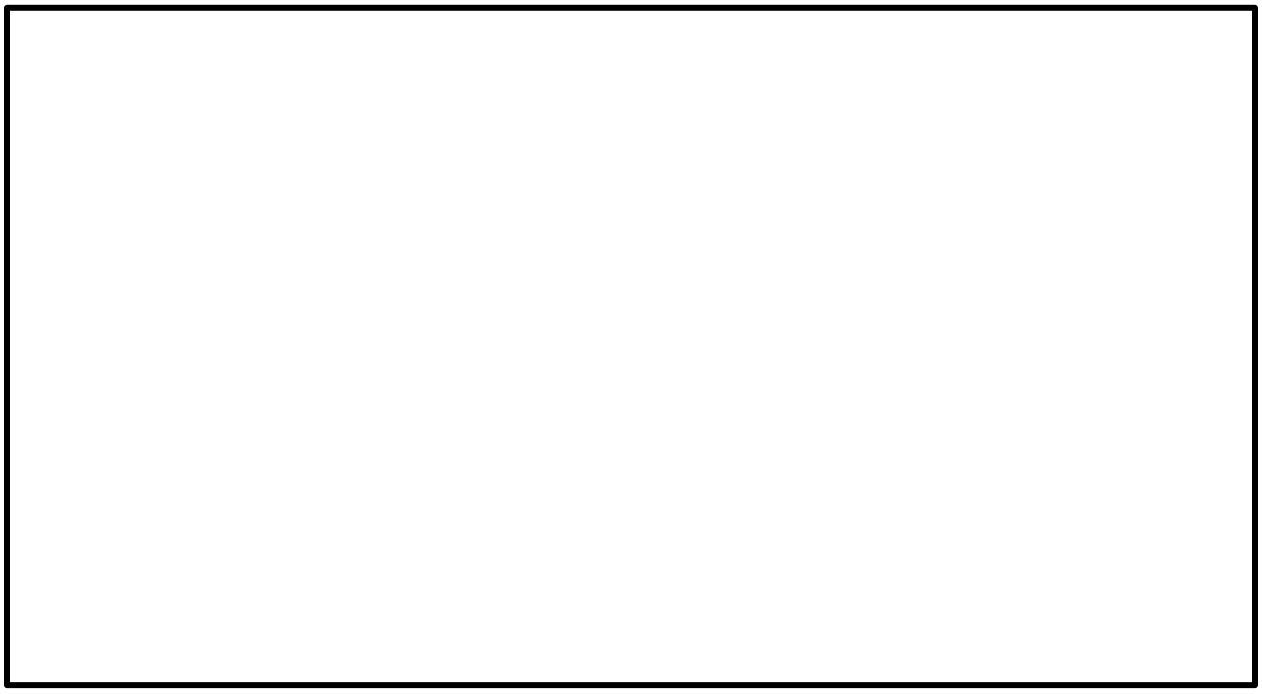

1) Use your evidence to make a scene that Columbus would use to illustrate himself. Make sure you use at least 1 inspiration from your excerpts. (What do you think he remembers most about his voyage?)

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

Columbus Assessment Name: _____

2) Use your evidence to make a scene that de Casas would use to illustrate Columbus. Make sure you use at least 1 inspiration from your excerpts. (What do you think he remembers most about Hispaniola?)

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

3) Use your evidence to make a scene that you think illustrates whether Columbus was good or bad. (For example, you could draw him discovering something new if you think he was good, or someone sad because he was bad). Make sure you use the excerpts for at least 1 inspiration.

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Student Name

	Not Evident 1	Developing 2	Standard Met 3	Exemplary 4
1: Defense of Columbus' opinion Score: ____	Student uses 1 or less examples from the excerpts, but demonstrates no clear statement on how Columbus viewed himself.	Student uses 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a statement on how Columbus viewed himself.	Student uses at least 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a satisfactory statement on how Columbus viewed himself.	Student uses ~~more than~~ 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a thoughtful statement on how Columbus viewed himself.
2: Defense of de Casas' opinion Score: ____	Student uses 1 or less examples from the excerpts, but demonstrates no clear statement on how de Casas viewed Columbus.	Student uses 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a statement on how de Casas viewed Columbus.	Student uses at least 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a satisfactory statement on how de Casas viewed Columbus.	Student uses ~~more than~~ 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a thoughtful statement on how de Casas viewed Columbus.
3: Personal opinion Score: ____	Student uses 1 or less examples from the excerpts, but demonstrates no clear personal statement on Columbus.	Student uses 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a personal statement on Columbus.	Student uses at least 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a satisfactory personal statement on Columbus.	Student uses ~~more than~~ 1 example from the excerpts to demonstrate a thoughtful personal statement on Columbus.

4: Communication Score: ____	Student does not communicate the same story between the illustration and the written statement.	Student communicates the same story between the illustration and the written statement.	Student communicates the same story between the illustration and the written statement, referencing the illustration in the writing.	Student communicates the same clear story between the illustration and the written statement, referencing often the illustration in the writing.

Score (out of 16):

Comments:

Columbus Assessment Name: _____

1) Use your evidence to make a scene that Columbus would use to illustrate himself. Make sure you use inspiration from your excerpts and video. (What do you think he remembers most about his voyage?)

Picture of Columbus hugging the Taino leader

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

I drew a picture of Columbus hugging the Taino chief. This is because Columbus thought he was helping the Taino tribe by bringing goods from Spain.

Columbus Assessment Name: _____

2) Use your evidence to make a scene that de Casas would use to illustrate Columbus. Make sure you use inspiration from your excerpts and video. (What do you think he remembers most about Hispanoila?)

Picture of sad Native American face, with caption: "I wish I had something to eat"

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

I drew a picture of a sad Native American. This is because Columbus killed his friends. He's saying "I wish I had something to eat", because Columbus didn't let him grow any food.

Columbus Assessment Name: _____

3) Use your evidence to make a scene that you think illustrates whether Columbus was good or bad. (For example, you could draw him discovering something new if you think he was good, or someone sad because he was bad). Make sure you use the excerpts and video for inspiration.

Picture of Columbus with lots of gold, with a caption saying "beat that, Portugal!"

Explain the scene you drew in 1 sentence.

I drew a picture of Columbus happy because he thinks he's a good guy. He's holding lots of gold because that was the biggest thing he cared about. He's saying "beat that, Portugal!" because Spain was competing with Portugal.

Columbus Assessment Name: _____