Restorative Practice

Circle Exercises

Table of contents

01 Warm-Ups

02 Purposes of the Circle

03 Community-Building Exercises

04 Repairing Harm Exercises

01

Warm-Ups

Table of Contents

Somatic Breathing

Pick one exercise to practice while taking deep breaths

Somatic Shakeout

Shake it out for 10 seconds

Shoulder Shrug

Shrug your shoulders all the way up to your ears and then let it go

Speaking with One Voice

Everyone practices the same vowel sound and raises the volume together

Body Stretch

Let all the tension in your body go

Finger Stretch

Touch each finger together with your thumb

Body Scan

Check in on your body

Box Breathing

Breathe, hold, and let go for 4 seconds

Guided Meditation

Close your eyes and breathe

Affirmations

Take a deep breath and say something positive to

Table of Contents

02

Purposes of the Circle

Table of Contents

If you are thinking about harming yourself or others, I have to report it.

Table of Contents

Purposes of the Circle

Speak in English

We will practice speaking to each other in English only

Learn about Ourselves and Others

Learn to practice respect, curiosity, and self love

Learn How to Solve Problems in a Group

When things are hard, we learn how to communicate

Table of Contents

Speak in English

Google Translate is Okay

If I don't know how to say it, I can use Google Translate

Asking for Help is Okay

I can ask teachers and students for help.

Help Others

If we see someone who needs help with English, we can try to help.

Table of Contents

Speaking in English is helpful for...

Communication

- Emergencies

Daily Life

- Go to the doctor
- Go to the store

Relationships

- Make friends
- Talk to my boss

Table of Contents

Learn about Ourselves and Others

Speak from the heart

Being kind, being honest, being authentic

Listen from the heart

Being respectful, staying calm, expect the best from everyone

This is a safe space

We do not share with others outside of the group

Table of Contents

Learn about Ourselves and Others is helpful for...

Table of Contents

Controlling My Emotions

- I can solve problems

Knowing What I Like and Don't Like

- Make decisions

Learning How to Ask Questions

- Get a job
- Relationships

Learn How to Solve Problems in a Group

Work as a Team

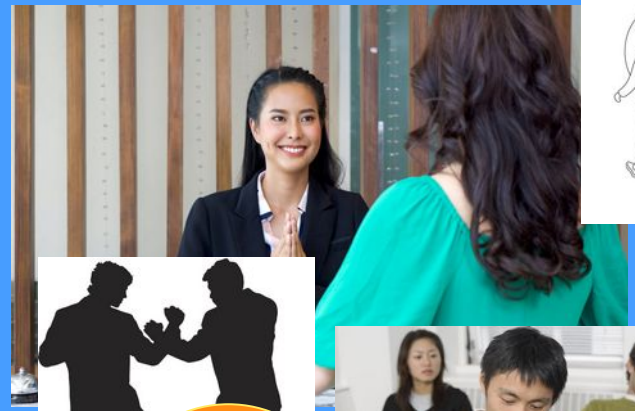

Help each other, understand each other, work together and talk it out

Be kind

No hands on others, no yelling, listen when someone is talking or asking for help

Give each other space

If someone is frustrated, they can take a break

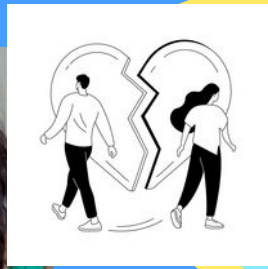

Table of Contents

Table of Contents

Learning How to Solve Problems in a Group is helpful for...

Making Mistakes

- Job skills

Solving an Argument

- Family
- Friends
- Team

Working Together

- Class
- Friends
- Job

03

Community-Building Exercises

Table of Contents

Community-Building Exercises

Body

I can solve problems in a group

Emotions

I can learn about myself and others

Questions

I can learn about myself and others

Logic

I can solve problems in a group

Table of Contents

I can.. Use my body to learn English, learn about myself and others, and solve problems in a group.

Line-Up

Line up by certain things without talking

Human Knot

Hands in the middle and untangle

Silent Statue

Stand still for 60 seconds

Keep Up

Keep the ball in the air for as long as you can

Amoeba Tag

Don't get caught by the amoeba!

Scatter

Catch the ball or scatter

Pass the Clap

Clap at the same time using eye contact

Silent Telephone

Repeat the movement in a line

Pulse

Make a song as a group

Crossing the Great Divide

Cross the room without breaking the line

Rock-Paper-Scissors

Win or cheer!

Table of Contents

Line-Up

Directions:

- Line up in order of biggest to smallest.
- No talking!

Topics:

1. Age
2. Hair length
3. Shoe size
4. Number of siblings
5. Last name in alphabetical order
6. Height
7. What time you woke up today
8. Number of pets
9. Grade
10. Favorite animal by size
11. Eye color
13. Hair color
14. Language in alphabetical order
15. Home country in alphabetical order

Reflection:

1. What was hard about communicating this way?
2. When in real life would you need to communicate without talking?
3. What could you do to get better at communicating without talking?
4. Did you notice that a leader came into the group?

Table of Contents

Keep Up

Directions:

- Keep the ball off the ground for as many seconds as you can. Try to beat your score from last time.
- Between rounds, come up with a strategy.

Reflection:

1. What did it geel like to reach your goal?
2. What did it feel like when you dropped the ball?
3. What did it feel like to drop the ball yourself?
4. How did the group decide which strategies to use?
5. How could you make yourself heard in the group?

Table of Contents

Pass the Clap

Directions:

- Use eye contact to clap at the same time as the person next to you.
- If you don't clap at the same time, we start over.
  - Try to go as fast as possible! Then, start changing the direction of the clap.

Reflection:

1. What was hard about passing the clap?
2. Why did you need to use eye contact to pass the clap?
3. When you got frustrated, what did you do?
4. What can this game teach us about communicating with others?

Table of Contents

Crossing the Great Divide

Directions:

- Cross a distance in a line as a group. Your feet must be touching the feet of the person next to you or the whole group starts over.
  - Then, make the distance farther and harder to cross!

Reflection:

1. What did it feel like to succeed in this challenge?
2. How did the group choose to solve problems?
3. What did it feel like when you had to start over?
4. How was communication different between the people on your sides?

Table of Contents

Human Knot

Directions:

- Put two hands in the middle of the circle and grab two hands.
- Try to untangle the knot so that everyone is standing in a circle holding hands.

Reflection:

1. How did you make decisions about who should move or how?
2. What did it feel like to be stuck?
3. What did it feel like to be free?
4. Have you ever felt stuck in knots?

Table of Contents

Amoeba Tag

Directions:

- Players will move back and forth to each side of the room while one “amoeba” chases them.
- If the amoeba catches you and says “amoeba” you become part of the amoeba and connect to the other amoebas by linking arms. Help catch the others.

Reflection:

1. What was it like to be the first player in the amoeba?
2. What was it like to be the last player in the amoeba?
3. How did you feel to be in a team?
4. What does it feel like to be in a team in real life? What is an example of a team you are on?

Table of Contents

Silent Telephone

Directions:

- Players all face one direction in a line.
- The person in the back of the line will make a movement with their body and show it to the person in front of them.
- The movement will move up the line until all the players have repeated it.

Reflection:

1. Did the movement stay the same from the back of the line to the front? How is this similar to sharing information?
2. Where do you think the movement changed, and what do you think caused the problem?
3. What are things you can do to communicate better in real life?

Table of Contents

Silent Statue

Directions:

- Everyone in the circle stands as still as a statue for 1 minute.
- If anyone moves or makes a sound, the timer resets.

Reflection:

1. What was the hardest part about standing still?
2. When the room was silent, what did you see or hear?
3. What did you do to keep yourself calm?
4. How did it feel to know that others around you were trying hard to focus? How did it affect you when someone else made a noise?
5. When you feel stressed, what can you do to keep calm?

Table of Contents

Scatter

Directions:

- One person has the ball and yells out different answers to the question, “What’s your favorite ____?”, while throwing the ball in the air.
- If it is your answer, catch the ball. If not, scatter!
- Once someone catches the ball, that person is the next “Caller”.

Topics:

1. Animal
2. Color
3. Fruit
4. Sport
5. Month
6. Vegetable
7. Pizza topping
8. Cereal
9. Super hero
10. Ice cream flavor
11. Class in school
12. Lunch at school
13. Teacher
14. Chips
15. Candy
16. Outdoor activity
17. Indoor activity
18. Exercise
19. Chocolate bar

Reflection:

1. How did you know whether to scatter or catch the ball?
2. How did it feel as you were waiting to find out what to do?
3. Do you ever feel like you are waiting on the feelings of other people to be shown before you move closer or further away?
4. Can you imagine how your feelings can affect other people?
5. What is positive about keeping your own emotions under control?

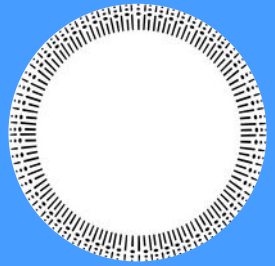

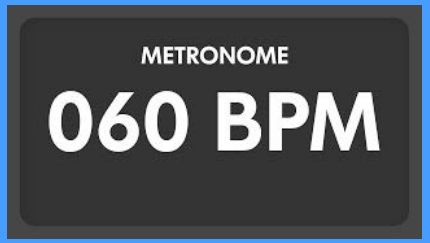

Table of Contents

Pulse

Directions:

- Pulse is a game where we create a song with no words.
- Each person adds a new sound to the beat and it is passed around the circle. When it is your turn, you have to remember every sound.

Reflection:

1. What was the feeling in your body as it got closer to your turn?
2. When someone made a mistake, how did the group react?
3. When it wasn't your turn, what were you focused on?
4. How would the song sound if everyone chose to use the same sound?

Table of Contents

Rock-Paper-Scissors

Directions:

- Rock-paper-scissors, except whoever wins takes the losing person as a cheerleader.
- Game ends win final boss wins!

Reflection:

1. When you lost, how did it feel to cheer for the other person? Was it easy or hard?
2. Did you feel more encouraged when it was a big or small group?
3. Who is someone that you know that is a natural cheerleader?
4. How can we control the energy and volume of the room?

Table of Contents

I can.. Use questions to learn English, learn about myself and others, and solve problems in a group.

Loving the Questions

Share questions you have without needing an answer.

Silver Lining

Find something positive about a frustrating experience

Two Truths and a Lie

Add a lie into your story

Social DIscipline Window

Respond to a situation in 4 different ways

What Did I Need?

Think about what you needed during harm

Guest House

Read or listen to a guest speaker

See Ya!

Find the “best” or “worst” winner

Table of Contents

Loving the Questions

Table of Contents

Directions:

- Read the poem below as a group. This circle is for sharing questions we don't have answers to. It's okay not to know.
- Share something you are wondering about.

Poem:

"Have patience with everything unresolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves as if they were locked rooms or books written in a very foreign language. Don't search for the answers, which could not be given to you now, because you would not be able to live them. And the point is to live everything. Live the questions now. Perhaps then, someday far in the future, you will gradually, without even noticing it, live your way into the answer."

-Rainer Maria Rilke, in "Letters to a

Questions to ask:

1. What do you wonder about yourself?
2. What do you wonder about your family?
3. What do you wonder about your closest friends?
4. What do you wonder about your teachers?
5. What do you wonder about nature?
6. What do you wonder about the world?
7. What do you wonder about the night?
8. What do you wonder about the universe?

Reflection:

9. What does it feel like to not know the answers to your questions?
10. What can you do when you don't know the answers to something?

Silver Lining

Directions:

- Share something that has been frustrating for you this week. Allow someone to ask you one reflection question about the experience. Then, share one positive thing that you learned from the experience.

Questions to ask:

1. Looking at it now, is there something you would have done differently?
2. If it happens again, what can you do?
3. What part of this experience was out of your control?
4. Was there anyone who helped you get through this moment?
5. If your friend was going through this, what would you say to them?
6. What is one strength you had to use to get through this experience?

Table of Contents

Two Truths and a Li

Table of Conten
ts

Directions:

- Share a story about an experience you've had in your life using the topics to guide you. Create one lie in your story.
- The group gets to ask you one open-ended question to try and figure out which one part a lie.
- Share the answer and then allow the next person a turn.

Topics:

- A time you've been hurt
- A time you were lost
- A scary weather experience
- A special skill you have
- A weird food combination you love
- A time you tried something new
- An obsession that you had as a kid
- A time you've waited in line

Questions to ask:

1. What did the setting look like?
2. What were you thinking while it was happening?
3. What was the weather like?
4. What emotions were you feeling?
5. How do you feel about the memory now?

Reflection:

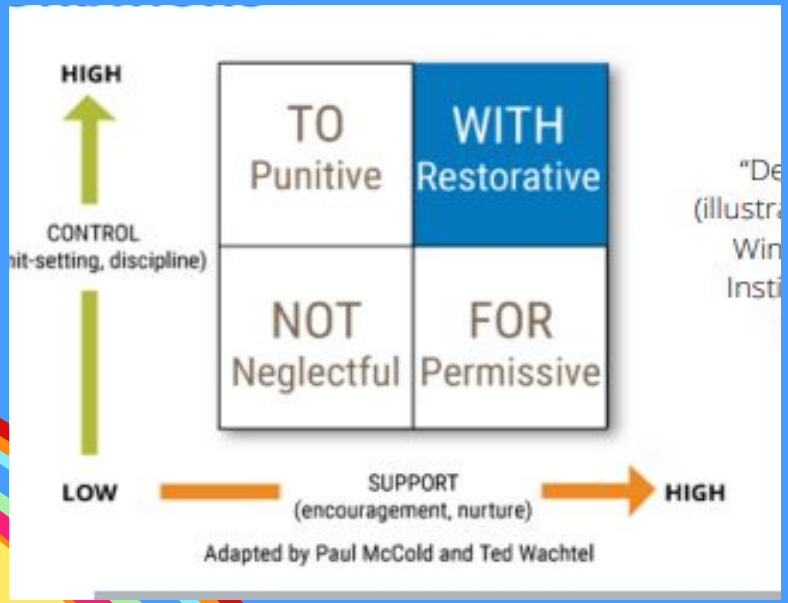

6. How could you tell which part was a lie?
7. Was it harder to lie or harder to explain the truth? Why?
8. What is something you learned about someone else that was surprising to you?

Social Discipline Shuffle

Table of Contents

Directions:

- Divide into four groups, as equal as possible.
- Your group will be given a word, “for, not, to, or with”.
- Decide in your team how someone would respond to the situation (slides here) depending on the word you were given. If they did it “for” them, how would it look?How about “to”,or “not” or “with”?
- The group guesses which word you were given.

Reflection:

1. Which approach do you think is the best? Why?
2. What is an example from your life when you did something “with” someone?
3. What is an example of a time when someone did something to, not, for, or with you?

What Did I Need ?

Directions:

- Share your answers to one of the following prompts, going around the circle. Then, respond to each other, repeating the needs that you heard expressed.

Questions to ask:

1. Think about a time when you became aware of a crime or harm that affected your community. What were your needs?
2. Think about a time when you have experienced hurt or harm. What were your needs in that relationship?
3. Think about a time when you have harmed someone else. What were your needs when you harmed someone else?

Table of Contents

Guest House

Directions:

- Read the guest poem or saying and answer the prompts (slides here).

Table of Contents

See Ya!

Table of Conten

Directions:

- Divide into groups of 4 and stand in the groups around the circle.
- Everyone in the group answers the questions (you have 30 seconds). Whoever wins, the group says “see ya!”, and that person moves to the next group.

Questions:

1. Who has the most siblings?
2. Who has eaten the strangest food?
3. Who has traveled on the coolest form of transportation?
4. Who has the coolest hobby?
5. Who drinks the most coffee?
6. Who came to class the earliest today?
7. Who has had the most broken bones?
8. Who has moved houses the most?
9. Who has the most unread text messages?
10. Who has gotten in the most trouble at school?
11. What was the best thing that happened to you this week?
12. What is your biggest waste of money?
13. What is the best gift you have ever received?

Questions (cont):

14. Who has the loudest scream?
15. Who has the quietest whisper?
16. Who comes from the country that is the furthest from here?

Reflection:

1. What is one new or interesting thing you learned about someone else?

I can.. Use my emotions to learn English, learn about myself and others, and solve problems in a group.

Thanksgiving

Share something you're thankful for

Connection Questions

Share a meaningful answer to a question

Question Chain

Ask a follow-up question

Shout-Out Pass

Share a complement

If You Really Knew Me

~~Teach~~ the group more about you

This or That

Which do you prefer?

Just Like Me

Connect with others in the group

Today in Memes

Which meme are you today?

Table of Contents

Thanksgiving

Directions:

- Go around the circle and share one thing you are thankful for related to the topics below. Then, one person will ask you a follow up question.

Topics:

1. Something that Inspires You
2. Family Members
3. Community, Culture, or Ancestors
4. Teachers
5. Moon, Sun, Stars
6. Weather
7. Birds and Trees
8. Friends
8. Food
9. Outside
10. The Earth

Questions to Ask:

1. How does this thing smell or taste?
2. What do you like about who you are around this thing/person?
3. What does this thing sound like?
4. What is your favorite memory of this person/thing?
5. What is something you have learned about this thing/person?
6. What is something that you have learned about the world from this thing/person?

Table of Contents

Connection Questions

Table of Conten

Directions:

- Go around the circle and share the answers to one of the questions, and then complete a reflection.

Questions:

1. Share your name and a story connected to your name.
2. What is your favorite color and your favorite object of that color?
3. If you could travel anywhere, where would you go and why?
4. If you could have a superpower, what would it be and what would be your first action?
5. If you could spend a day with any person, dead or alive, who would it be and what would you do together?
6. What is something you would like to learn?
7. What is the best advice you ever received?
8. What is something boring about you?
9. Do you prefer to be out or at home? What do you like to do there?

Questions (cont.):

10. When people ask you for help, what do they usually want help with?
11.. Name someone who has been a teacher in your life, someone who has made you think differently about things. What is one thing you learned from them?
12. What has been the greatest learning experience of your life and what did you learn?

Reflection:

1. What is one thing you learned about someone in the group?

2. What is one thing you had in common with someone else?

Question Chain

Directions:

- Go around the circle, asking the person next to you a question after you answer a question. Person A asks, then person B answers and then asks person C a question.
- The questions should follow the same topic, picked from the list below. Everyone should have a few minutes to think of a question to ask.

Topics:

1. Music
2. Food
3. Movies
4. Family
5. Hobbies
6. Goals/Dreams
7. School
8. Exercise

Reflection:

1. What is one thing you learned about someone in the group today?

2. Was it easier to ask someone a question or answer one?

3. When the person next to you was answering, did you find yourself actually interested in what they were saying, or were you just stressed out waiting for your turn to speak?

4. What do you think is the purpose of this practice?

Table of Contents

Shout-Out Pass

Directions:

- Practice giving a complement. Pick one person in the circle and shout them out for something they have done recently. Then, give the talking piece to them.

Reflection:

1. In high school, it often feels easier or 'cooler' to be mean to each other or complain than it does to give a compliment. Why do you think we carry that kind of social armor?
2. Look around the circle right now at the people who didn't get the talking piece passed to them today. Who is someone in this room who deserves a shout-out that we need to make sure we recognize in our next circle?
3. When your name was called and the talking piece was passed to you, what did that physically feel like? Was it easy or hard for you to just accept the compliment?

Table of Contents

If You Really Knew Me

Directions:

- Go around the circle and share something, starting your sentence with, “If you really knew me, you would know that…”.
- You may pass after holding the talking piece for 3 seconds.
- Everyone should observe with silence.

Topic:

1. Green: Focuses on current mood or hobbies, things stressing you out
2. Yellow: Hidden facts, family relationships
3. Red: Major life events, personal truths

Reflection:

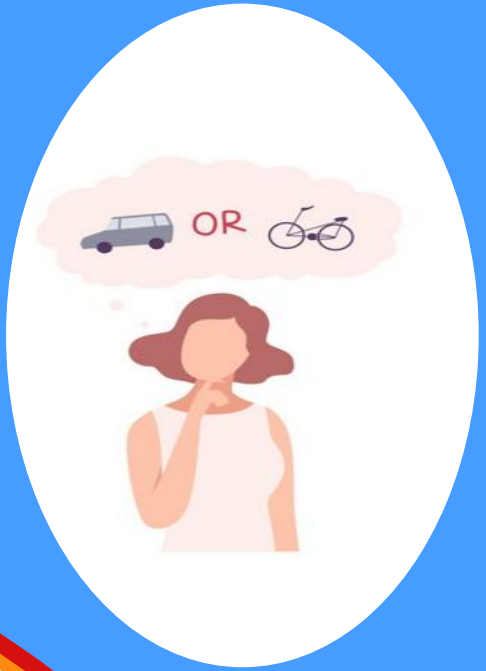

1. How did it feel knowing you had total control over whether to choose a Green, Yellow, or Red prompt? Did having that choice make it easier to speak?
2. How did today's round prove that the 'outside' version of a person rarely matches what’s happening on the inside?
3. Was it harder to think of your own 'If you really knew me' statement, or was it harder to stay completely locked in and present for everyone else's?
4. Now that we know a little bit more about the hidden weights people are carrying into the room today, how does that change how we treat each other during our independent work time?

Table of Contents

This or That

Directions:

- Stand in the middle of the room. Then, pick a side depending on what you prefer for each question (slides here).

Reflection:

1. What surprised you about watching the group respond to the prompts?
2. What did you learn about this group that you didn't know before?
3. What came up that you would like to learn more about from one or more people in the group?

Table of Contents

Just Like Me

Directions:

- Stand in a circle as a group. Each person makes a statement about themselves. If someone else in the group feels the same way, they walk into the circle and say "Just Like Me".

Topics:

1. Daily habits
2. Future goals
3. Family
4. School
5. Favorites
6. Snacks
7. Animals
8. Sports
9. Hobbies
10. Annoying things

Reflection:

1. For which statement did almost the entire room walk into the circle?
2. Did anyone experience a moment where you wanted to walk into the circle, but you hesitated or looked around first to see if anyone else would do it? What were you afraid of?
3. How can we carry the phrase 'Just like me' into our lives? When someone bumps into you or gets grumpy, how does pausing and thinking 'They might just be having a terrible day, just like me' change your reaction?

Table of Contents

Today in Memes

Directions:

- Go around the circle and share which meme you feel like today.

Reflection:

1. Looking around the circle at the memes selected, what seems to be the collective energy or 'vibe' of our classroom right now? Are we a room full of chaotic energy, or are we mostly running on low batteries?"

Table of Contents

I can.. Use my logic to learn English, learn about myself and others, and solve problems in a group.

Echo

Neptune is the farthest planet

Concentration

Jupiter is the biggest planet

Picnic

Mercury is the closest planet

Classifying Attributes

Venus has high temperatures

Huh?

Venus has high temperatures

Group Picture

Mercury is the closest planet

Opposite Day

Saturn is a gas giant with rings

Table of C
ts

Echo

Directions:

- Someone will be the “leader” and direct you similar to Simon Says. Except in this version, you have to follow the second direction given. For example, if they say, “pat your head” and then “jump” and then “clap”, you would jump when they say “clap”.

Reflection:

1. How did you hold the old command in your head while trying to listen for the new one? Did you repeat the old word to yourself, or did you visualize it?
2. This game is the ultimate test of impulse control—stopping your body from doing what it naturally wants to do immediately. Where else in your daily life (at home, in relationships, or in school) do you have to fight your first automatic impulse?
3. When you messed up a command, did you completely give up and check out, or were you able to instantly clear your brain and jump back into the rhythm for the next round?
4. Why is copying the crowd dangerous in this specific game?

Table of Contents

Picnic

Directions:

- We are going on a picnic. One person is in charge of the picnic and gets to decide what gets to come on the picnic based on a secret rule they created (example rules on the link above).
- Everyone in the circle asks if they can bring different items so that they can try and figure out the secret rule. Anyone can guess what the rule is at any time.

Reflection:

1. When you kept offering items and the person kept telling you 'No, you can't come to the picnic,' what was happening to your frustration level? Did you want to keep trying, or did you want to completely check out of the game?
2. For those who finally cracked the code, what did it feel like to shift from being 'excluded' to suddenly being 'in on the secret'?
3. Why is listening to other people's success a helpful way to solve your own problems?
4. How can we ensure that our classroom isn't a place where people feel left out of the 'secret code'? What can we do everyday to make sure the rules of success here are clear and open to everyone?

Table of Contents

Huh?

Directions:

- Divide into three groups and stand in a line in the room. One group is the transmitters, one group is the receivers, and one group is the interference.
- Transmitters think of a short phrase that they want the receivers to copy. When I say "go", they begin to shout the phrase at the receivers.
- The receivers repeat the phrase until I say that they have it correct.
- Interferers try to prevent the message from getting through by yelling or talking.

Reflection:

1. What was it like to be in all of the different positions?
2. What were some strategies you used to communicate?
3. What were some strategies you used to hear the message?
4. Do you ever find yourself being an interferer in life?
5. What do you do when messages get jumbled in real life?

Table of Contents

Opposite Day

Directions:

- One person is the caller.
- Go = stop and stop = go.
- Jump = clap and clap = jump.
- If you mess up, you are out.
- If the game needs it, you can add more commands.

Reflection:

1. What was challenging about this game?
2. What was easy about it?
3. What did it feel like to be out?
4. When do directions become difficult and confusing in real life?
5. What are some strategies you can use when its difficult to follow directions?

Table of Contents

Concentration

Directions:

- Everyone sits in a circle and chants the concentration song with the rules (check link). One person picks a topic.
- Everyone must name something from that topic when it is their turn. If they cannot come up with one, they game restarts.

Topics:

1. Fruits
2. Candies
3. Animals
4. Things in a kitchen
5. Countries
6. Jobs
7. Things in a school
8. Things on the beach
9. States in the USA
10. Math terms
11. Body parts
12. Things in sports
13. Holiday words (Christmas, Halloween)

Reflection:

1. When you missed a snap, said the wrong name, or broke the rhythm, what was your immediate internal reaction? Did your brain freeze up, or were you able to immediately reset?
2. What is the difference between a group that groans or laughs when a mistake happens versus a group that silently holds the beat and waits for you to jump back in? Which environment makes it easier to succeed?
3. In this game, if you spend all your time being upset for a mistake you made, you will immediately miss the next turn. How does this apply to real life when we let one bad grade or one bad interaction ruin our entire day?

Table of Contents

Classifying Attributes

Directions:

- Engage in some routines that discuss different attributes (slides here). Then, complete the reflection questions below.

Reflection:

1. Just like a shape or picture can look different if we turn it upside down, how might a classmate see this problem differently than you? Why is their perspective valuable?
2. Two shapes or pictures can have different attributes, but they still belong to the same family. How can we have differences in our circle but still all belong to one family?
3. What is an attribute (a trait or strength) you brought to our circle discussion today that helped the community?
4. If we only looked at the color or size of these shapes, we would have categorized them wrong. When have you made a quick assumption about someone or something, and how did you fix it?

Table of Contents

Group Picture

Table of Conten

Directions:

- One student will be selected to draw for 5/10 seconds on a whiteboard or big pad of paper.
- The next person must draw on the same picture for the same amount of time, trying to turn the first person's drawing into a cohesive picture.

Reflection:

1. Did you view the previous person's marks as a 'mistake' you needed to fix, or as an invitation to build something new? What is the difference between trying to erase a setback in life versus building on top of it?
2. In this game, there was no time to make anything perfect. How does lowering our standard of 'perfection' actually free us up to be more creative and take bigger risks?
3. What did it feel like to walk away from the board and watch the next person immediately change, add to, or completely re-interpret the lines you just drew?
4. Based on this game, what is the best mindset to have when you are forced to build on someone else's unfinished work?

04

Repairing Harm Exercise

Table of Contents

Repairing Harm Exercise

Our Goal with Repairing Harm

What do we want to do?

Repairing the Harm

How can we move forward?

Restorative Questions

How can we find out what happened?

Reflection

What can we do differently next time?

Table of Contents

Our Goal with Repairing Harm

- In this room, making a mistake or hurting someone's feelings doesn't mean you are a bad person. It just means we need to make it right.
- Punishment asks:
    a. "How do we make you suffer for what you did?"
- Repairing Harm asks:
    a. "What do we need to do to fix the problem so everyone feels safe again?"

We are not defined by our worst mistakes. We are defined by how we show up to fix them.

Restorative Questions

- What happened?
- What were you thinking/feeling at the time?
- What have you thought about since?
- Who has been affected by what you have done? In what way?
- What do you need to do to make things right?

- What did you think when you realized what has happened?
- What impact has this incident had on you and others?
- What has been the hardest thing for you?
- What do you think needs to happen to make things right?

Repairing the Harm

Option 1: Self Regulate

- Take a 2-minute pause, check your own energy, and change your behavior moving forward without needing a big discussion.

Option 2: Person-to-Person

- Have a direct, private conversation with the person you harmed.

Option 3: Share in the Circle

- Acknowledge to the whole circle that your energy or actions threw off the group vibe, and commit to bringing a better energy to the next activity.

Reflection

1. What could we do differently next time?
2. Why does it matter that you are genuine when solving a problem?

